Today's Game: Franklin & Marshall (3-1, 2-1 CC) at Susquehanna (1-3, 1-3 CC)

Series History: Today's game marks the 11th meeting between Franklin & Marshall and Susquehanna. F&M leads the series 8-0-2. The game is the first since a 1980 meeting in Selinsgrove back on November 1, 1980, a 42-6 F&M win. That was the second part of a home and home that rekindled a long dormant series. The year prior, F&M had shutout the Crusaders 23-0. The 1979 meeting was the first since the 1915 season.

The first clash between the two teams came in 1898 in Selinsgrove. F&M won the first meeting 6-0 on October 25. The teams met again in Lancaster the following year and played to a 6-6 tie, the first of two ties in the series.

In Lancaster: F&M 6-0-2 | In Selinsgrove: F&M 2-0 | In Centennial: First Meeting

Date	Location	Result
10/25/1898	Selinsgrove	W, 6-0
11/4/1899	Lancaster	T, 6-6

10/30/1915	Lancaster	W, 53-0
10/27/1979	Lancaster	W, 23-0
11/1/1980	Selinsgrove	W, 42-6

It's Been Awhile: It has been 40,884 days, or 111 years, 11 months and one week since these two schools first met on the gridiron in Selinsgrove. It has been 10,927 days or 29 years, 11 months and one day since these two teams last met on the gridiron in Selinsgrove.

The Last Meeting: Rob Shepardson '83 threw for 241 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while running backs Mike Duncan '81 and Charlie Heisey '83 each crossed the goalline twice in a 42-6 win at Selinsgrove. The Diplomats amassed 491 yards of total offense with 342 coming through the air. Frank Granito '81 piled up 100 receiving yards on four catches, including a touchdown strike from Shepardson. Shepardson was the last F&M freshman quarterback to take the first snap of the season prior to John Harrison (Flourtown, Pa. / La Salle College HS).

F&M Last Week: Franklin & Marshall junior John Harrison set school records for career completions and passing touchdowns as the Diplomats trounced Juniata 55-13 in a Centennial Conference (CC) football contest on Saturday. Three of his four touchdown strikes came in the second quarter when F&M lit up the scoreboard for 28 points.

Harrison completed 14-of-21 throws on the day for 198 yards before yielding the field to F&M frosh, E.J. Schneider (Barry Lakes, N.J. / Delbarton). Harrison's fourth pass of the day, an 11-yard catch and run by tailback Alan Williams (Benton, Ky. / Marshall County), marked the 53rd touchdown of Harrison's career. That gave him sole possession of the record he had shared with Joe Coviello '77 since the previous week's win at Dickinson.

Susquehanna Last Week: Ursinus College held the ball for close to 44 minutes and ran 89 offensive plays as the Bears defeated Susquehanna 24-7 on Saturday afternoon in Centennial Conference football action. Senior quarterback Justin Decristofaro threw for 207 yards and two scores as the Bears moved to 4-0 for the first time since 2006. He was 17-for-30 with scoring passes of 20 and 3-yards in the win. Freshman running back Bryan Ellis ran for 109 yards and a touchdown of his own, as the Bears had 380 yards in total offense. Junior running back Kahlil Pittman caught a team-high four passes for 24 yards and a score.

Associate Members: Susquehanna competes in the Landmark Conference, which does not compete in football, for the majority of its sports. The Crusaders are an associate member of the Centennial in both football and women's golf.

Sounding Like a Broken Record: John Harrison now owns career records for completed passes (485), passing touchdowns (56), completion percentage (65.3), and pass efficiency rating (144.1).

On Harrison's Horizon: Despite the most completions in F&M history, Harrison remains fourth on the list for passes attempted at 743. He is seven attempts away from matching Shepardson, 33 attempts away from matching Jeff Harner '06, and 182 passes away from matching Bill Meekings '94. He needs 112 yards today to match Shepardson for second in career passing yards at 5,476 and 267 yards to match Bill Meekings career record of 5,631 yards. If he passes for 136 yards today, he will reach the 5,500-yard plateau.

The other big record in Harrison's sights is the touchdowns responsible mark. The fleet-footed Joe Coviello '77 was responsible for 69 touchdowns between 1973 and 1976. Coviello threw 52 touchdowns and rushed for 17 more. Harrison is currently responsible for 56, all through the air.

Movin' On Up: Jay Ridinger (Lititz, Pa. / Manheim Twp.) crossed a few milestones with last Saturday's seven-catch, 155-yard (career-high), two-touchdown effort against Juniata. He sailed past 1,500 receiving yards into 1,60-yard territory. He enters today's game ranked eighth in receiving yards at F&M. He needs three yards to tie Dale Schleif '73 for seventh in F&M history. Schleif will be inducted into the F&M Hall of Fame at the end of October. Ridinger, with 135 career receptions, needs three to tie Matt Wagaman '04 for fifth on the career receptions chart at F&M. Ridinger is also two touchdown receptions away from becoming just the fifth receiver in F&M history to catch 20 touchdowns in his career.

Kaschak Closing in on 1,500: John Kaschak (Lake Hoptacong, N.J. / Jefferson Twp.) needs eight yards to become the eighth Diplomat rusher to gain 1,500 career yards. A 90-yard effort today would tie him with Ken Scalet '89 for seventh on the career rushing yards chart, while a 101-yard day would tie him for sixth in career rushing yards with Ted D'Amico '76.

Back in Sack: Franklin & Marshall recorded seven sacks against Juniata last week. It is the second best effort in dropping the quarterback in the new millennium. The Diplomats posted eight sacks in last year's win over Ursinus. The Diplomats are the 12th most proficient team in the NCAA in dropping the quarterback.

Sack Streak: C.T. Marsh (Phoenix, Md. / Loyola-Blakefield) has recorded at least one sack in each of the past three games. He leads the Diplomats' defense with four sacks this season, bringing him to 10.5 on the junior's career. He is tied with Peter Mohoric '03 for 24th on the career sacks list at F&M. One sack would break him into a tie for 20th on that list. Matt DesChamps '93 holds F&M's career sack record at 25.5.

F&M's Provost: Kenny Provost (Petoskey, Mich. / Petoskey) gave Juniata fits all day Saturday. The sophomore recorded a team-best and career-high nine tackles. Seven of his stops were solos. His three tackles for losses of 21 yards included a pair of sacks for losses of 19 yards.

Welcome to the TD Club: Freshman quarterback, E.J. Schneider tossed his first collegiate touchdown pass of the year to Peter Gumas (Medfield, Mass. / Medfield) in the fourth quarter of F&M's 55-13 win over Juniata. It was the first collegiate touchdown on both ends of the equation. Later in the quarter, Jacob Kelly (San Diego / The Bishop's School) rushed for his first collegiate touchdown, punching in from five yards out. Donald Wiezik (River Vale, N.J. / Pascack Valley) scooped and scored a on a fumble against Juniata for the Diplomats' second defensive touchdown of the season, but the first of Wiezik's career.

In the Black in the Red: Franklin & Marshall has scored on 15 of its 16 trips into the red zone this season. Of the red zone trips, 14 have ended with Diplomat touchdowns. Meanwhile, F&M has been stingy at the other end. Only half of the opposition's 14 red zone forays have yielded points, and only four touchdowns have been scored from inside of the 20 against the Diplomats' defense.

Red Zone Turnovers: One of the reasons that teams don't score in the red zone is turnovers. F&M has ended five red zone opportunities by taking the football away. Four of the takeaways were interceptions, including freshman Chase Andreassi's (Southampton, N.Y. / St. Anthony's) red zone pick last week against Juniata. That was one of two takeaways for the Diplomats while their backs were to the wall. Sam Massaro (Old Tappan, N.J. / Northern Valley Old Tappan) forced a fumble on the one yard-line that was recovered by Ty Savastio (Downingtown, Pa. / Downingtown East).

Study Effort: Sophomore Jordan Studevan (Philadelphia, Pa. / William Penn Charter) recorded the first half-sack and forced fumble of his career all in one fell swoop. He finished the sack that Kyle Wengerter (Creskill, N.J. / Creskill) had started by forcing the fumble that was recovered by Wiezik for the score. Wengerter recorded 1.5 sacks in the win over Juniata. It was the first multiple sack effort of his career.

F&M's 30 for 30: 30 different Diplomats recorded at least one defensive statistic during the win over Juniata. That ties the team-high in the Troxell set last year when 30 players recorded at least a tackle. 29 of the 30 players with stats last week registered a tackle. The only defensive player that had a stat, but not a tackle was Andreassi. His touchdown saving interception more than makes up for the fact.

Just an FYI: None of John Harrison's records would be possible if we weren't upright. F&M's offensive line gets it done.

Savastio the Savior: Ty Savastio (Downingtown, Pa. / Downingtown East) saved F&M from the sting of two Dickinson touchdowns. Savastio picked off a Ricky Martz pass in the end zone in the first quarter, then broke up a Martz third down pass that was destined for six points.

Conestoga Grad Helps Grab Conestoga Wagon: Chris DeSteafo (Berwyn, Pa. / Conestoga) went 5-for-5 on PATs Friday night. This is noteworthy because he was kicking for F&M. His effort marks the first time F&M has been perfect on PATs in a game the Diplomats have scored three or more touchdowns since last year's 21-14 win at Ursinus on October 10. Eight games have passed since that contest, seven of which saw F&M score three or more TDs. DeSteafo also piled up five tackles (3 solo) in the win from his spot at safety.

He Tackles Too: You get the sense that senior tight end, Michael Deutch (Sussex, N.J. / Vernon Twp.) will do whatever is asked of him. Aside from his four receptions for 44-yards and a touchdown and his week one punting duties, Deutch recorded three open field tackles on kickoffs at Dickinson.

Ball Hogs: Franklin & Marshall held possessed the football for 17:48 of the second half at Dickinson, giving the Diplomats possession for 36:17. It was the most time F&M has held the ball through the three games played this season. Dickinson was only able to muster 92 yards of offense in the second half.

Despite the clock dominance in the second half, it was not the most greedy half of Diplomats' football this season. F&M held the ball for 23:27 of the first half in the win over Washington & Lee. The lopsided time of possession yielded lopsided statistics. F&M rolled up 312 yards of offense compared to Washington & Lee's four and took a 29-0 lead into the break.

Vote of Confidence: F&M is one of three Centennial teams receiving votes in the D3Football.com Top 25. The Diplomats are joined by Johns Hopkins and Ursinus. All three Centennial teams sit outside of the top 25.

Marsh Approaching 10: C.T. Marsh (Phoenix, Md. / Loyola-Blakefield) is a half sack away from becoming the 25th Diplomat to record 10 sacks in his career.

Bear Hunter: C.T. Marsh has two multiple sack games to his credit. Both were against Ursinus. Marsh led all Diplomat tacklers with 10 stops, eight solo, against Ursinus. That effort included four tackles for losses of 23 yards, half of which were sacks for losses of 16 yards. That performance landed him on the Centennial Conference's Weekly Honor Roll. A year ago at Ursinus, Marsh recorded 1.5 sacks resulting in 11 yards of setbacks for the Bears.

575: Franklin & Marshall's win over Washington & Lee was the program's 575th victory.

Pick Wisely: Two of W&L's drives ended in the F&M end zone with F&M interceptions. Nick Barbieri (Glen Mills, Pa. / Penncrest) and Chris DeStefano each recorded their first career picks.

A Season of Firsts: In 2009, Harrison became the first F&M and CC QB to reach 250 completions in a season. He also became the first F&M and CC QB to throw 30 touchdowns in a season, as well as the first F&M and CC QB to throw for 3,000 yards in a season.

Preseason Rankings: Franklin & Marshall's football team entered the 2010 season as the 25th ranked team in the nation according to The Sporting News. F&M is also still receiving votes in the D3Football.com Top 25. The Diplomats are coming off of a 9-2 season, that concluded with a come-from-behind, 29-24 win over Wilkes in the ECAC South Atlantic Championship game.

Centennial Poll Position: F&M ranked second in the Centennial Conference preseason football poll and collected seven of the 20 first place votes. Only reigning Centennial Champions Johns Hopkins finished ahead of F&M in the poll with 11 first place nods.

Decorated Coach: John Troxell's fourth year ended on an upswing. The Diplomats mentor delivered a 9-2 record and an ECAC bowl win. He was named the Centennial Conference's Coach of the Year and was a national finalist for the highly coveted Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, finishing in second place in fan voting. Troxell and his staff were also selected to coach the South Team offense in the D3 All-Star Classic.

Captain's Choice: Seniors Jay Ridinger and Mark Surma will lead the 123rd edition of Diplomats football through the 2010 campaign.

Individual Preseason Nods: Tight end, Michael Deutch, and defensive lineman, Mark Surma, were named preseason All-Americans by D3proday.com. Surma was named to the third team, while Deutch earned honorable mention. The team is limited to seniors.

An All-Centennial Second Team pick in 2009, Surma served as the Diplomats' lone junior captain. He will reprise the role in 2010 following a season in which he posted 33 tackles, including four sacks. He forced a fumble as well.

Deutch was an All-Centennial First Team choice in 2010. He wrapped up the season with 35 receptions for 375 yards. He caught nine touchdown passes in 2009 to help the Diplomats to a 9-2 mark and the ECAC South-Atlantic title.

All-Conference Returnees: Four of F&M's eight All-Centennial selections from 2009 return to the gridiron for the 2010 season. Tight end, Michael Deutch, is the only returning first team choice, while quarterback John Harrison, inside linebacker Sam Massaro, and defensive lineman, Mark Surma are returning second team choices.

Deutch made his first All-Centennial appearance following a regular season in which he caught 35 passes for 375 yards and nine touchdowns. His nine, six-point grabs set the Conference's single season record for touchdown catches by a tight end. The record had been owned by a Diplomat, Mike Sernatinger, since 1995. Harrison established dozens of records at Franklin & Marshall and in the Centennial Conference this season. His 276 completions, 3,096 yards, and 32 passing touchdowns are all school and Centennial Conference single season records. He turned in Franklin & Marshall's second-ever 400-yard passing effort with 404 yards and five touchdowns - also a school single game record - at McDaniel. Harrison threw for five touchdowns on two occasions during the 2009 season. A freshman in 2009, Massaro started at middle linebacker from the outset earning Centennial Conference Player of the Week honors after the season-opener. Despite missing the final game of the season to injury, Massaro led F&M in tackles with 22 more than the next closest player. His 70 stops included 43 unassisted efforts, eight for losses, four of which were sacks. Massaro tied for the team lead in interceptions with Lovett, Kellar and Ty Savastio. Each had three on the season. Surma made his first All-Centennial appearance. He recorded 33 tackles, including 17 solo stops this season to go with four sacks and a forced fumble.

Trox Box

In 2009, Troxell guided the Diplomats to a 9-2 season that was capped by an ECAC South Atlantic Championship victory. Troxell was named the Centennial Conference's Coach of the Year and was one of five national finalists for the highly coveted Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award. The 9-2 season marked the Diplomats best campaign dating back to 1996.

Named the 39th coach in Franklin & Marshall football history on March 22, 2006, Troxell took the reins of the Diplomats following five seasons (2001-2005) as an assistant coach at Lafayette during which he served as video coordinator, running backs coach, recruiting coordinator and special teams coach for the 2004 and 2005 Patriot League champion Leopards.

During his tenure, he mentored 2004 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Joe McCourt '05 to a record-setting career. Under Troxell's tutelage, McCourt, the 2001 Patriot League Rookie of the Year, concluded his career as Lafayette's and the Patriot League's all-time leader with 50 rushing touchdowns, and second on the school's all-time rushing list with 4,474 yards while earning All-America honors in 2002 and 2004.

Named the Leopards' recruiting coordinator prior to the 2003 season, Troxell landed 24 freshmen for the 2005 season, including 10 who were all-state players. He joined the Lafayette staff after serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Muhlenberg College from 1997-2000.

He served as special teams coordinator (1997-99), quarterbacks and wide receivers coach (1997-2000) and offensive coordinator (2000) at Muhlenberg as the Mules went from a 1-9 season in 1997 to the Eastern College Athletic Conference title with a record of 9-2 in 2000. In 2000, his offense ranked 22nd in Division III and led the Centennial Conference in total offense (427.8 yards per game) while averaging 31.0 points per game.

In his first three seasons at Muhlenberg, Troxell coordinated the Mules' special teams. Under his guidance, Muhlenberg led Division III in kickoff returns. Josh Carter, Lafayette's offensive assistant in 2004, was the Football Gazette specialist of the year under Troxell's tutelage. He also coached the quarterbacks and receivers all four seasons, including Muhlenberg's all-time leading passer and Carter, the program's first Centennial Conference player of the year.

Troxell joined the Muhlenberg staff after serving as an assistant coach for three seasons at Columbia University. He assisted with the Lions' defensive backs from 1994-96, helping them record the third-best pass defense in Division I-AA in 1996. The assistant recruiting coordinator his final two seasons at Columbia, he was elevated to running backs coach in the spring of 1997.

A 1994 Lafayette graduate with a B.A. in government and law, Troxell was the starting free safety on the Leopards' 1992 Patriot League championship team and received the program's Unsung Hero Award as a senior. He went on to earn a M.A. in sociology and education from Columbia in 1997. A native of Phillipsburg, N.J., Troxell and his wife, Pamela, have two daughters: Summer and Capri.

Troxell's Coaching Highlights

- 39th Coach in Franklin & Marshall's football history
- 2009 Liberty Mutual Division III Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2009 Centennial Conference Coach of the Year
- Led the 2009 Diplomats to a 9-2 record
- Led the 2009 Diplomats to an ECAC South Atlantic Bowl victory
- Selected to coach the South Team in the 2009 Division III Senior All-Star Classic
- Coached the 2004 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year
- Coached the Patriot League's 2004 Rookie of the Year
